Social Franchising

What is it and is my social enterprise/ social cooperative franchiseable?

Renate Goergen, Le Mat

Michael Berriman, Commonwheels

So, today

- What is social franchising
- Is my social enterprise franchiseable?
- Share some knowledge / spread some love
- Conclude

A (tiny) bit about us!

Commonwheels CIC

- Short-term, locally-based, community-owned car sharing – since 2007
- A network of 110 vehicles across 20+ locations with over 1300 member drivers
- UK's largest community-owned car sharing company
- Mixed portfolio of managed operations and franchisees
- Only car club in the UK using a franchise model for business growth

Terminology

- Franchising?
- Abused term?
- Does it cover franchising / replication / licensing?
- Are we bothered?

What is it?

- “Social franchising is the application of commercial franchising concepts to achieve socially beneficial ends, rather than profit” (Wikipedia)
- “Social franchising: The next big thing for social enterprise (again)” (the Guardian)
- “Although social franchising is like commercial franchising, it is significantly different – social franchisors can close the circle” (ESFN)

So, what is it?

Characterised by:

- a franchisor
- a common brand
- a common system
- a defined territory
- a sharing of knowledge and resources a shared social purpose
- a mutually beneficial relationship
- a closed circle

How does it fit with social enterprise?

- Based upon commercial franchising and Italian Consortia
- Allows social enterprise to be locally based and benefit from real economies of scale
- Enables more rapid growth – through replication and businesses in a box
- Puts social enterprise at the forefront of organisational development
- A federation that grows stronger as it grows bigger

The Benefits?

- Accelerated business growth
- Credible and established brand
- Quick and easy(er) to start up
- Some couldn't develop any other way (e.g. lack of resource, need for local ownership)
- Business specific support
- Support from peers in other franchisees
- Control through shared ownership
- Mutual growth

The Pitfalls?

- Failure to understand business
- Original business not strong enough
- Apeing commercial franchise
- Growing too fast too soon
- Franchising for the wrong reasons
- Selecting the wrong franchisees
- Lack of infrastructure and support
- Failure to seek/take proper advice
- Incorrect pricing

And how does this help?
